PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY, Ames, IA

August 2005 to May 2008

Instructor, College of Design, 2005 – 2008 (concurrent with graduate studies)

Provided instruction and guidance primarily to freshman students, for two required courses, Design Studies - Foundation Drawing and ArtIS - Color. Planned and prepared syllabus and conducted classes through lecture, studio work, in-class presentations, demonstrations, discussions, and personal mentoring in line with established curriculum. Gathered and organized teaching materials. Supported, advised, critiqued, and recorded student coursework and progress. Collaborated with administrators and other faculty. Maintained and encouraged artistic and academic integrity and compliance with department policies.

- Demonstrated high-level of skills and maturity to become the first graduate student to be afforded the opportunity to teach Design Studies 131 to incoming freshman students.
- Received teaching award for extraordinary performance in 2006.
- Statistical averages of student evaluations are typically above 4.5 on a scale of 1-5.
- Students provided positive feedback through written evaluations applauding my performance and commending my ability to elicit previously untapped talents and abilities.
- Dedicated to advising students, enriching learning experiences, and providing most fulfilling, effective, and respectful learning environment, process and outcome for each student

IOWA STATE MEMORIAL UNION, Ames, IA

July to August 2006

Intern, Fine Art Collection and Lending Library

Cataloged art collection, changed out displays in meeting rooms, and installed several art shows in gallery rooms. Ensured proper care, treatment and maintenance of collection and enabled security systems.

- Gained valuable skills in matting, framing, and preparing select pieces for hanging and display installation.
